Congress must make it a priority to shape bureaucracy in Federal Government. And Congress must work to solve the energy crisis by providing for domestic exploration and development.

HONORING LT. COL. KEVIN SONNENBERG

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Under a previous order of the House, the gentleman from Ohio (Ms. KAPTUR) is recognized for 5 minutes.

Ms. KAPTUR. Mr. Speaker, tonight, I rise to honor the life of Lt. Col. Kevin Sonnenberg of the Ohio National Guard, another American war hero who was laid to rest today in his beloved State of Ohio. His peers have noted that Col. Sonnenberg will be remembered as a fearless fighter pilot who perished before his time serving the Nation he loved.

Col. Sonnenberg died on the 15th of June, 2007, when his F-16 Fighting Falcon crashed near Balad Air Base in Iraq, shortly after takeoff.

He had just departed on a mission to provide air support to Coalition ground forces fighting anti-Iraq forces.

Colonel Kevin Sonnenberg was an instructor pilot and C Flight Commander assigned to the 112th Fighter Squadron in Toledo, Ohio. He had numerous deployments with the unit, including Operation Northern Watch, Turkey; Operation Southern Watch, Kuwait; Operation Enduring Freedom, Qatar; and Operation Iraqi Freedom, Iraq. He truly is an American hero.

Colonel Sonnenberg was well decorated for his service during these missions, receiving awards and decorations including: The Bronze Star, Meritorious Service Medal with Valor, the Air Medal, the Aerial Achievement Medal with two Devices, the Air Force Achievement Medal with two Devices, the Joint Meritorious Unit Award with Gold Border, the Air Force Outstanding Unit Award with one Device, the Combat Readiness Medal with four Devices, the National Defense Service Medal with one Device, the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal, Global War on Terror Service Medal, the Air Expeditionary Ribbon with Gold Border, the Air Force Longevity Service Award with three Devices, the Armed Forces Reserve Medal with four Devices, the Bronze Hourglass "M", Arabic four, Small Arms Expert Marksmanship Ribbon with one Device, the Air Force Training Ribbon, the Ohio Distinguished Service Medal with Valor, and the Ohio Faithful Service Ribbon with two Devices.

A 1983 graduate of Napoleon High School, Kevin Sonnenberg earned a Bachelor of Science degree from Bowling Green State University in 1987. He graduated from the Academy of Military Science in 1991, followed by the Squadron Officers School in 2001 and the Air Command and Staff College in 2007.

An Instructor Pilot of F-16s with more than 1,900 hours flown, Lieutenant Colonel Sonnenberg served several assignments in his tenure with the Ohio Air National Guard, including his most recent with the 112th Fighter Squadron.

A traditional member of the Ohio National Guard, Lieutenant Colonel Sonnenberg was also a commercial pilot and farmer. He had been a commercial airline pilot with Delta Airlines since from 2000 until his death. He grew up farming with his father and remained devoted to their partnership.

In the Great War of the last century, the poet Alfred Noyes penned his thoughts about English fighter pilots in "To the Royal Air Force." His words written so long ago capture the spirit of today's F-16 fighter pilots and Kevin Sonnenberg when he wrote,

"Whether at midnight or at noon,

"Through mist or open sky,

"Eagles of freedom, all our hearts

"Are up with you on high . . .

"From realms beyond the sun

"And whisper, as their record pales,

"Their breathless, deep, Well Done!"

His fellow airmen wrote that, "Lieutenant Colonel Sonnenberg will be remembered as a Renaissance man, able to maneuver America's most advanced aircraft in a perilous war zone one week and then discuss corn and soybean crops with Henry County farmers the next. And he did both with his natural, down-home nature that endeared him to so many across Ohio, the Air Force and the world. He should be honored as a patriot whose commitment to his country was surpassed only by his devotion to God."

Lieutenant Colonel Kevin Sonnenberg was a man of action, a man of character, a man who revered God and country and family. He drank deep from the cup of life and lived the journey well, though too short. I imagine he would concur with the words of Christina Rossetti in her poem, "Remember":

"Remember me when I am gone away,

"Gone far away into the silent land;

"When you can no more hold me by the hand,

"Nor I half turn to go yet turning stay.

"Remember me when no more day by day."

I would like to close my remarks by paying tribute to him on behalf of the F-16 fighter pilots of the 180th Tactical Fighter Squadron in our region, to their support staff, to all the members of the Ohio National Guard, to their families and all Buckeyes who truly revered this man's life.

Just about a month and a half ago, I wished off that unit with over 350 members of the Ohio National Guard to fly to Iraq to join their colleagues who have been based there for several months. I gave Kevin Sonnenberg a hug before he left, as I did to every F-16 pilot that left.

This F-16 unit is the best that America has. They rank at the top of every single measure that this Nation has. He was among the finest of the finest in our country. He gave his all to us. He did all he was asked to do. He died loving his family, his country and his God; and we love him and his family and his country and our God.

Mr. Speaker, it is fitting that we end this evening in tribute to the life of a great American airman.
